

Speech & Debate Team excels at tournaments

Congratulations to the Hancock Central School District's Speech & Debate Team, which placed second Saturday, November 3, at the Delaware County Bar Association Tournament in Walton.

Lily Ogazalek and Emily Rubera placed first and second, respectively, in Dramatic Interpretation and earned half-bids in their initial journey to national competition. Ogazalek also took third in Impromptu.

The trio combined to win five trophies during the Catskill Area School Study Council Speech and Debate Tournament on October 20 at SUNY Oneonta.

Lily took first place in Impromptu and Emily placed second in the same category. They also finished second and third, respectively, in Dramatic Interpretation on October 20, when Andrea placed third in Extemporaneous.
