

National Honor Society inducts 11

The Hancock Central School District inducted 11 students into its National Honor Society on Thursday night, November 8, at the Hancock Middle School/High School Auditorium.

Congratulations to newcomers Alexis Bennett, Catherine Bennett, Sierra Francisco, Brenna Gleim, Nicholas Gross, Roger Newman, Lily Ogazalek, Emily Rubera, Katherine Smith, Christian Sokol and Kelsey Young!

NHS President Riley Ostrander, Vice President Trinity Crawson and fellow members Haylee Zartman, Thomas Schoonmaker, Makenna Loucks, Camryn Hazen, Erin Evanitsky and Owen Wormuth helped welcome the Class of 2018. The Induction Ceremony also featured remarks from Superintendent Terry Dougherty and a keynote address by special guest Kevin Caramore.

Special thanks to NHS Advisor Monica Whitt, music coordinator Kristy White, Crazy Daisy Flowers and all the family members and friends who attended the event.
