Mission Statement

The mission of the Hancock Central School District Calendar Committee is to create an annual calendar that meets the needs of the community, students and staff members.

Major Committee Functions

- Meet as needed to review the status of the current school year calendar;
- Determine the calendar for the upcoming school year;
- Present the proposed school calendar to the Board of Education for final review and approval.

This committee also may include association representatives, district administrators and other Board of Education members. Meetings will be scheduled and held after regular school hours.
